

Amber & Silver Jewellery

Contributed by
Saturday, 26 January 2008

SilverMaT is one of most dynamically developing companies in amber jewellery business. We offer a wide range of silver with amber products as bracelets, necklaces, brooches, rings, earrings.

All of our products are of very high quality hand made. The natural Baltic amber we're using is very carefully selected to be possibly the best and the Sterling silver is the European Standard material called 925 (92.5%) Silver.

Our offer encompasses traditional as well as modern jewellery with big selection of unique patters produced by famous polish designers, excellent specialists in Baltic amber. High quality of our products constitutes a distinctive feature of a company.

The articles we are supplying are already available in most of West-European countries where they are constantly gaining bigger attention.

Our offer applies to people of discerning tastes, people who are willing to participate in the most original trends of the modern art.

www.silver-ambermar.com